Andrea Bromberg has been named executive director of the National Dance Institute of New Mexico.

She recently served as senior development officer for arts fundraising at the University of New Mexico.

Also, Russell Baker has been named artistic director, replacing Catherine Oppenheimer, co-founder of the National Dance Institute of New Mexico, who will become founding artistic director.

Oppenheimer danced professionally with New York City Ballet and Twyla Tharp Dance Company. She also taught for Jacques d'Amboise's National Dance Institute and founded the National Dance Institute of New Mexico with d'Amboise in 1994.

Baker joined NDI-NM in 2003 after 10 years with the Kansas Coty Ballet.

Donna Scheer has been appointed to the newly created position of director of the School for the Performing Arts

She previously spent 11 years performing and teaching in New York.
