Welcome to today’s performance and NDI New Mexico’s 20th Anniversary! In this milestone year we are celebrating our belief in children, our commitment to excellence, and our Core Four values: Work Hard, Do Your Best, Never Give Up, and Be Healthy!

Since inception, NDI New Mexico has served 75,000 children with programs that engage and inspire them to be their best. For many children, our unique methodology of using the arts to teach life lessons has been a key to unlocking a path to learning and success. This year, NDI New Mexico programs have set the stage for improved health, academic achievement, self-confidence, and quality of life for 7,650 children, 425 teachers, and 68,000 audience members around the state.

We wish to recognize all the people who have helped make the past 20 years so special and spectacular. Our public school teachers, principals and administrators have supported our weekly classes. Our instructors and musicians have created joyful classroom experiences and inspiring performances that will serve as memories for a lifetime. Our parents, families, and audience members have attended shows and cheered for the performers’ achievement and excellence. Our public officials have forged strong partnerships to make our programs accessible to our communities. Our donors and volunteers have generously given from their hearts to make it all possible.

This year we are also thrilled to announce the completion of the third and final phase of renovation at The Hiland Theater in Albuquerque. The neighborhood is already becoming more vibrant and alive with activity and the facility is filled each day with children and programs. Our afterschool, weekend, and summer classes are open to all children in the community and we thank the many donors, public officials, families, friends, and staff who worked so hard to make it all possible.

We hope you are inspired by the enthusiastic smiles, energy, and possibilities you see on stage today. Together we are helping prepare children for a positive future. Here’s to the next 20 years!

Yours in Teaching Children Excellence,

20 YEARS of NDI New Mexico teaching children excellence

By teaching the “Core Four” – work hard, do your best, never give up and be healthy - NDI New Mexico’s programs give students the skills and attitudes to overcome obstacles and gain the confidence, tenacity and hard work ethic necessary to succeed in life.

Since 1994, NDI New Mexico has helped more than 70,000 of New Mexico’s underserved children by stepping up to meet head-on the educational, health, and other challenges they face. Our instructors and musicians are the “key ingredient” that brings our mission to life, inspiring students and transforming ordinary spaces through music and movement. Instructors also reinforce our most important message – that it takes energy and effort to achieve excellence!
NDI New Mexico programs are growing in Southeast New Mexico! Thanks to generous funding from The S.P. and Estelle Yates Family Foundation as well as the J. F Maddox Foundation, we are serving more children than ever before and training staff dedicated to working in the region... and we’re just getting started.

We are thrilled to welcome Lizeth Garcia as our new Southeast New Mexico Artistic Director. Lizeth is a caring and energetic performing artist and teacher who has worked in NDI-style outreach programs for the past five years. As Southeast New Mexico Artistic Director, Lizeth will help build an artistic team, expand programs to new communities, and develop both in-school and afterschool opportunities for students.

Add a quote from Lizeth...

NDI New Mexico first came to Southeast New Mexico 10 years ago and this year we are serving over 1,000 students in 13 schools in Artesia, Carlsbad, Roswell, Captaint and Hobbs. We are also offering summer programs in Artesia and Hobbs.

Next year our Southeast New Mexico Residency Team will be in residence in Artesia for a full 15-week program and afterschool classes. We will also add a second two-week Residency in Hobbs, add a second school in Carlsbad or Roswell, and begin planning for a new Residency in Ruidoso. As Southeast New Mexico experiences extraordinary growth, we are proud to be expanding and flourishing along with the region. ■
NDI New Mexico began 20 years ago when New York City Ballet dancer and founder of the National Dance Institute, Jacques d’Amboise, along with NYC Ballet dancer and actress Catherine Oppenheimer came to Santa Fe. Back then, the organization served 100 children in one school. Now, NDI New Mexico reaches more than 7,600 children each year in 34 communities around the state.

By engaging students at a young age through our unique and award-winning methodology, we make going to school more joyful and productive thus impacting low school attendance and academic success. Through our highly successful “HIP to Be Fit™” curriculum, which is designed to encourage healthy eating and exercise, we help provide solutions to chronic health issues such as childhood obesity and diabetes. All of NDI New Mexico’s programs are offered at no cost, or little cost, to children and their families and there are currently 100 schools on a waiting list to take advantage of what we offer.

This year, as NDI New Mexico marks 20 years of teaching children excellence, we celebrate all that sets us apart – unique programs that have demonstrated impact, core values that make us effective, and a vision for reaching children and helping them be their best that guides us now and into the future. The positive effects that NDI New Mexico’s students experience gives them a better chance at beating the statistics because they have the skills and attitudes to successfully join the workforce, go to college, and break the cycle of poverty.

We must invest in our children for our future to be bright. As we look ahead to the next 20 years, we strive to achieve the benchmark of 10,000 children served each year, to match every school we serve with a sponsor, to add depth to our programs in Albuquerque, Santa Fe, and across the state, to continue to study the impacts of our programs, and to foster strong ongoing relationships with our alumni. We invite you to join us as we bring experiences of joy and accomplishment to the next generation. As donors and friends, YOU are the key to our past, present and future success!

Through NDI New Mexico’s efforts, thousands of children now have a chance to succeed. Whether they choose a career as a professional dancer, or take the life skills they learned and go to college or enter the workforce – they have the Golden Ticket that every parent wants for their child: a chance.

- Russell Baker, NDI New Mexico Executive Director

Spotlight on Jacques D’Amboise

More than 20 years ago Jacques came to New Mexico with the support of a MacArthur Genius Fellowship in recognition of his unique work with children in New York City and his efforts establishing National Dance Institute. The first New Mexico “residencies” took place in Silver City and Santa Fe where teachers from New York, including NDI New Mexico’s Founding Artistic Director Catherine Oppenheimer, led outdoor performances. These experiences planted the seeds for what would eventually become NDI New Mexico.

Catherine quote about JDA and the early days...

Today, Jacques continues to choreograph and teach students, including recently setting his ballet “Puella Touches the Sun” on Santa Fe’s Company XCel. He is also widely recognized through awards such as the Kennedy Center Honors and shares his dance and life experience through national speaking engagements and books such as “I Was a Dancer.”

Last year, Jacques spoke before a group of NDI New Mexico’s most cherished donors, the Silver Sneakers Legacy Society. At that event, he played video excerpts from his 3 appearances dancing on the Ed Sullivan Show and shared remarkable stories of his life as a dancer and a teacher. “Every person we meet in our lives makes an impression on us, teaches us something, helps us to discover something about ourselves. Thank you for supporting NDI New Mexico and helping New Mexico’s children to discover something about themselves through dancing and have an experience which will help shape their lives.”
THE WHITE HOUSE

National Dance Institute of New Mexico
Santa Fe, NM

Dear Students:

I am so happy to hear about the exciting things taking place in your community and all the fun and creative ways you are staying active and eating healthy.

It is one of my missions as First Lady to ensure that kids like you are getting active and eating right every single day. We know that the choices you make today play an important role in your overall health, not just today, but as you grow and learn. Each of us has a role to play in achieving this goal, so I encourage you to join us online at www.LetsMove.gov where you can get involved and explore new ways to be active and eat fresh, healthy foods.

While I’m so excited to listen and learn from you, I’m especially excited for all of you to learn from each other. We need you to work together, and lend your hands and heart to help build a healthier future.

So stay active in your community, encourage your friends and family to get moving, and keep up the great work. Know that everything you need to accomplish your dreams is inside you and with hard work and dedication you can do anything.

Sincerely,

Michelle Obama

In 2013-2014, NDI New Mexico will reach more than 7,600 children, 425 public school teachers in 82 schools, 34 communities and 68,000 audience members statewide.

Students report that NDI New Mexico:
• keeps them healthy
• inspires them to move more
• helps them become more confident
• helps them learn new vocabulary and/or math skills
• concepts of “Never give up” and “Do your best” help boost their self-confidence and sense of accomplishment

Teachers, principals, and parents report that NDI New Mexico:
• has a higher expectation for children and more of a sense of focus and goal orientation
• brings out positive energy in their children and helps them develop teamwork skills
• helps students learn vocabulary words and math concepts through movement

The Celebration Team is one of NDI New Mexico’s advanced teams and is comprised of middle and high school aged students. These dancers have committed to teamwork, role model behavior, as well as hours upon hours of Saturday rehearsals for up to 7 years (see the list of Celebration graduates on page 35). These teens and “tweens” are also at a particularly vulnerable time in their lives and face many personal and social challenges that can end up affecting their education, health, and quality of life for the rest of their lives.

Last November, the Wallace Foundation, a national foundation dedicated to studying best practices in arts programming and management, named NDI New Mexico as one of the “exemplary” and “highly effective” organizations in the country for working with this age group. As part of their “Something to Say: Success Principals for Afterschool Arts Programs from Urban Youth and Other Experts” report, Wallace offers ten key principles for effective and high quality afterschool programs. Among nine other factors, the most important aspect of a successful arts organization is that the instructors are professional, practicing artists. Some of the other principles include safe and welcoming spaces that affirm the value of the art form, a culture of high expectations, and culminating student performances in front of public audiences.

“High quality productions such as those at NDI New Mexico’s performances signal to students their efforts are valued,” the report affirms. It goes on to describe Runs & Jumps, one of our performance staples, “NDI New Mexico electrifies audiences and gives each youth a moment in the spotlight.”

The full report, as well as a video featuring NDI New Mexico’s Celebration Team, can be found at wallacefoundation.org.
With ever-expanding programs, both The Dance Barns and The Hiland continue to positively impact the community by enriching the lives of children through engagement with the arts. Once again, it has been a year of growth for both facilities, with nearly 1,200 students currently enrolled. Of the 137 classes running at The Dance Barns and The Hiland, most are filled to capacity, and 21 have waiting lists!

The curriculum of every class encourages healthy attitudes, self-discipline, and creativity, while providing students with high-quality technical training. From our Tiny Tots to our upper-level performers, students at The Dance Barns and The Hiland exemplify the NDI New Mexico values of Excellence and Rigor through joyful study of the arts. Guided by these principles, the students have shined on stage and in life, entertaining audiences and developing as resilient individuals.

Our pre-professional performing group, Company XCell, is comprised of our most dedicated and advanced students. In addition to their excellent local instructors, throughout the year dancers have been afforded opportunities to learn from masterful guest instructors and choreographers, including Broadway legend, Ann Reinking; former dancer with New York City Ballet, Zippora Karz; and Albuquerque choreographer, Fletcher Nickerson.

Dancers from Company XCel along with fellow students performed in this year’s Winter Dance Escape productions featuring Peter and the Wolf. Accompanied by an eight-piece orchestra and choreographed by Program Directors Allegra Lillard at The Dance Barns and Evelyn Cisneros-Legate at The Hiland, this favorite ballet delighted and inspired children of all ages.

Company XCel students who demonstrate dedication and achievement also have opportunities to earn special scholarship funds to continue their pursuit of the arts through summer study at prestigious schools nationwide.

This year’s dancers will attend training programs at LINES Ballet in San Francisco, Boston Ballet, Joffrey Ballet in NYC, Ballet Chicago, and Walnut Hill School for the Performing Arts.

Classes at The Dance Barns and The Hiland are open to all children in the community. For additional information about afterschool, weekend, and summer programs, as well as class schedules and upcoming performance dates, please visit our websites: www.dancebarns.com and www.hilandtheater.com.

SPOTLIGHT ON CHELSEA AGUIAR

In 2009 I had a full hip reconstruction. Initially I found myself so afraid of further injury that I stopped dancing and being active all together. This in turn lead to weakness and weight gain. I lost my confidence. Then I discovered strength training. That changed my life and truly inspired me to become an athlete again!

In 2010 I started working at a very fancy gym/spa as a personal trainer, and I never could have guessed that I would be pursuing training as a career. This January, I decided to leave to start my own business. I am currently the owner and president of Athaya Fitness LLC!! Athaya (or Abhaya in sanskrit) means movement without fear.

I strongly believe that it is my dance background, knowledge of movement, and my time at NDI New Mexico that has made me such an effective trainer. My company motto (Drive. Strive. Thrive.) is a direct reflection of the core values I was taught as a child. I find myself preaching to my clients about the importance of doing your best on each given day. One word in particular has been drilled into my brain permanently. Excellence... I can’t get away from it! It has brought incredible success for me and for each of my clients.

I can’t begin to stress how much NDI New Mexico and its core principles have inspired me throughout my life. NDI New Mexico was everything to me growing up. Today my memories and experiences at NDI-NM are woven into the fabric of my soul. I love each of you, simply for continuing to inspire children and teens every day just as you did me. Pat yourselves on the back because you’re changing lives, and that is no small task. I will never be able to repay the program for everything it has given me, but I hope to continue to live as a person of excellence, and to share what I learned with the world. Thank you from the bottom of my heart and never stop what you are doing. It’s working!!
NDI New Mexico is pleased to have many partners that help strengthen our programs and communities throughout the state. We would not be able to provide our programs without strong community support and partnerships. In addition to local schools and school districts, there are many people, businesses, foundation and government agencies that make it possible for us to bring our staff to cities and towns all over New Mexico.

NDI New Mexico Day at the Legislature was sponsored by Representative Lucky Varela and Senator John Ryan on February 5. We were recognized through joint memorials for our 20 years of service to the children of New Mexico and, once again, our students impressed everyone with their dancing! Even more impressive was the outpouring of testimonials from legislators from around the state for the work that NDI New Mexico is doing to improve the lives of children and families in their communities. We were humbled by moving speeches from Rep. Varela and Sen. Ryan and Senators Howie Morales and Richard Martinez and Representatives Gail Chasey, Brian Egolf, Candy Sperce Ezzell, Stephanie Garcia Richard, Debbie Rodella, Patricia Roybal Caballero, Liz Thomson, Don Tripp, Carl Trujillo, Jim Trujillo, and Monica Youngblood.

Support from the NM Department of Health helps us to provide almost 50,000 instructional hours to 1,150 children and 116 classroom teachers around the state. They also support our evaluation work with UNM.

The City of Albuquerque continues to help us reach almost 200 students enrolled in after-school programs at 16 city community centers. Thanks to the Family and Community Services Department, the students participate in NDI New Mexico’s HIP to Be Fit® Club. Students have fun learning dance, cooking and good nutrition while improving their academic achievement.

Now in our second year of working with UNM’s Center for Education Policy Research, we have revised our evaluation to demonstrate how our teaching aligns with the new Common Core State Standards. We have conducted interviews with alumni and are organizing focus groups to hear how former students feel that NDI New Mexico has benefited them.

A big Thank You to all of you who make it possible for us to provide almost 305,000 instruction hours to children and teachers in all corners of the State of New Mexico!

“NDI New Mexico showed me how to stand on my own two feet and how to continue to persevere.”
Making History at THE HILAND

WE DID IT! In May 2013, we officially reached our $13 million goal for The Hiland! We have our dedicated donors and champions to thank for this tremendous milestone in the history of NDI New Mexico. Not only did we reach our financial goals, but construction on the final phase concluded as of April 1, 2014. Which means...The Hiland is complete!

From the colorful Children’s Entrance to the light-filled meeting rooms on the second floor, every inch of The Hiland has undergone a complete revitalization and is helping us carry out our mission in Albuquerque and throughout the state.

Visiting The Hiland on a busy day, you may see the east side full of students from the littlest Tiny Tot to experienced tap dancers, while energetic Outreach instructors lead SWAT and Celebration team rehearsals in the theater; in the newest west side studios, Evelyn directs rehearsals for Company XCel, NDI New Mexico’s most advanced group of dancers. Each week, 720 children utilize this wonderful space, bringing energy and a sense of possibility to our halls.

As rewarding as it is to reach our financial target, it is the meaning of those numbers that is most important. Gifts to The Hiland have made so much possible:

- Renovation of the east side into an after-school center for children and their families featuring 5 state-of-the-art studios/teaching spaces
- Restoration of the original theater into a convertible space with seating for 600 where we host thousands of audience members each year
- Expansion of the number of students we serve in Albuquerque – from 1,200 to 2,200 (with further growth on the horizon!)
- Recent completion of the west side, providing office space for staff and two additional studios
- Successful completion of the Kresge Foundation challenge match
- Much-needed new jobs and increased foot traffic in the Highland neighborhood

SPOTLIGHT ON EVELYN CISNEROS-LEGATE

After a 2-year search, NDI New Mexico welcomed Evelyn Cisneros to the Artistic staff as Hiland Program Director this year. As a former ballerina for the San Francisco Ballet, Evelyn is a shining example of our Core Four: Work Hard, Do Your Best, Never Give Up, and Be Healthy. As a child, she trained at the San Francisco Ballet School where her promise as a ballerina was widely recognized. Thanks to her hard work and dedication, by the age of 18 she was offered a long-term contract with San Francisco Ballet where she soon became the company’s favorite dancer. She captivated audiences worldwide and enjoyed an illustrious 23-year career with the company.

A powerful role model, Evelyn is considered the first Hispanic prima ballerina in the United States and has performed on the greatest stages in the world. Evelyn first discovered her talent by accident, when her mother enrolled her in a ballet class as a way to overcome her extreme shyness as a young child. As the Hiland Director, Evelyn oversees program quality and curriculum for after-school classes, and leads our wonderful team of Hiland instructors. She also teaches numerous ballet classes each week, including Company XCel. “I am so proud of the progress the XCel students have made over our first six months together; ballet is such a difficult art form that takes great concentration and commitment. They have not tired of the work and continue to work diligently towards meeting technical demands. It is a challenging but fun journey together,” Evelyn’s extensive career and teaching experience, as well as her gifts to mentor and guide our students make her a perfect fit to support our mission of teaching children excellence. Welcome, Evelyn!

“All the hours teaching in the studio are worth the effort when just one student is turned on by the art form. I love it!”

All the hours teaching in the studio are worth the effort when just one student is turned on by the art form. I love it!”
This journey began in 2006 when our board and staff identified Albuquerque as a key area for future growth. Reaching the campaign goal was possible because of donations from over 1,000 individuals, businesses, foundations, and public partners. Special thanks to Catherine Oppenheimer, Garrett Thornburg, Don and Dianne Chalmers, Louise Campbell-Tolber and Nancy Blaugrund for their leadership and commitment as Co-Chairs of the campaign.

Our goals for The Hiland include filling every studio every day, training instructors at The Hiland that can be sent out to teach NDI New Mexico programs in Albuquerque schools and in rural communities, and securing full funding for each of our classes, whether they take place at The Hiland or at a local school.

We invite you to continue with us on this wonderful journey in Albuquerque. As we continue to offer no- and low-cost programs to children in Albuquerque that need our programs most, we need the support of our friends and donors now more than ever to share the NDI New Mexico story and to ensure this important work continues.

How YOU can make a difference in Albuquerque:

- Sign up for Hiland classes - we have offerings for students ages 3-adult with classes in tap, jazz, ballet, hip hop, musical theater, voice, and zumba.
- It’s not too late to see name in lights! There are still opportunities to purchase seats, and theater seats through multi-year support to our Albuquerque programs.
- Designate NDI New Mexico in your United Way giving. Monthly gifts make a huge difference in the level of services we can offer Albuquerque families.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE PELOSO FAMILY

The Peloso family plays an important part in The Hiland’s history. In the early 1990’s, Mickey and Frank Peloso took an interest in the building after United Artists stopped using it as a movie house. They envisioned it as a performance center in support of the arts in Albuquerque. NDI New Mexico had the privilege of meeting Mickey and Frank’s children in 2011 during the theater’s renovation, touring them through the building and sharing the dream of a thriving campus geared toward “teaching children excellence.” Today, the legacy of the Frank A. Peloso Performing Arts Center lives on at The Hiland. As hundreds of children cross the threshold each week to study tap, jazz, ballet, musical theater, and voice, the family’s vision is brought to life.

“Our parents would be very proud of what The Hiland has become,” says Ole Peloso. “It’s wonderful to see the building alive with activity and reaching so many families in Albuquerque.”

As we celebrate the completion of The Hiland, NDI New Mexico wishes to thank Ole & Sheila Peloso, Antoinette Peloso & Chad O’Connor for their support of The Hiland, their belief in the mission of NDI New Mexico, and their dedication to continuing their parents’ legacy. We are honored to know you!”
Celebration Team members are dancers who are invited to join the team after excelling through the Super Wonderful Advanced Team and demonstrating excellence and model behavior.

TRANSFORMING LIVES & REVITALIZING CULTURE • PROGRAMS FOR MEANINGFUL CHANGE

In these fractured times, when our humanity seems under continual assault, there is a place where people come together to remember and explore what it means to be fully human, a place that fosters a deep engagement with learning, and an opening to wonder. This place is the Academy for the Love of Learning.

Thirty years ago, Aaron Stern, with his mentor, the late Leonard Bernstein, dreamt of revitalizing our culture and finding an answer to Bernstein’s question: “Don’t we never learn?”

Yes, we do learn. We do transform. And, we must get much better at it. The Academy for the Love of Learning is activating this transformation in individuals, organizations and communities through programs such as Teacher Renewal, El Otro Lado, Lifesongs, and Leading by Being®—the Academy’s foundation course in personal leadership.

“This will be our reply to violence: to make music more intensely, more beautifully, more devotedly than ever before.” — Leonard Bernstein

SPOTLIGHT ON CHUCK & BARBARA MOORE

Moving to Santa Fe, with its long history of being creatively and culturally diverse from New York City, has proven to be a wonderful location for the continued development of Barbara’s and Chuck’s interest in the support of educational initiatives in the visual and performing arts. When asked, and in perfect alignment of that interest, Barbara joined the NDI New Mexico Board in 2011 and continues to serve in the continuation and building of a solid future for this incredible organization.

When Barbara and Chuck were first married, Barbara was a Junior High School teacher in Houston. She recognized early on that while doing their best was her classroom mantra, some needed additional support and help in recognizing their full potential. Her involvement with NDI New Mexico continues to embrace that feeling and her concern for the youth of New Mexico and the need to support and enhance their own self-esteem and a future of opportunity.

Chuck is a steadfast partner with Barbara and her involvement with NDI New Mexico. They are firm believers that we all need to work together for the future of this incredible community.

Most of us are unaware that a transformative gift involves adjusting a few simple lines of text in our estate plan. Known as a bequest, these “planned” or “legacy” gifts can trigger a staggering increase in the number of lives affected by your favorite charity. And who better to change lives than NDI New Mexico?

Beyond their venerable impact, some planned gifts also provide enormous tax benefits which can be realized immediately, while other types provide a lifelong stream of income for you and your loved ones.

NDI New Mexico celebrates planned giving donors by welcoming them into its most exclusive giving circle: the Silver Sneakers Society. Featuring intimate gatherings in the homes of lead supporters, its members are treated to engaging presentations and riveting private performances.

To become a member, contact Russell Baker at 505-983-7646 x 109.

*Founding Member of the Silver Sneakers Legacy Society

As Board Chair, Beth Moise leads NDI New Mexico at a unique time in our history – our 20th anniversary as a statewide organization. “I felt it was important to emphasize our 20th anniversary and use this milestone to celebrate our incredible history of impact and success,” Beth says. “This anniversary provides the perfect opportunity to share our story with a broader audience and to shine this spotlight on our wonderful family of donors.” Beth and her husband Steve have been active with NDI New Mexico since 2002. They were first introduced to the organization by Emeritus Board members Cindy Johns and Dianne Chalmers. After seeing the program in action at the Johns’ home, they jumped into action, personally supporting the program and sharing its work with their circle of friends. Beth joined the board in 2008, shortly after NDI New Mexico secured the lease for The Hiland Theater and amidst preparations for a capital campaign and major growth in Albuquerque. Coincidentally, it was also the same year Russell Baker became Executive Director. Beth’s background in organizational strategy, development, and executive coaching has proven to be a winning mix. Groups like our Albuquerque Managing Council and Governance Committee have benefited from her expertise. Due in no small part to Beth’s influence, our Board has developed into a dynamic group of leaders that represent both Santa Fe and Albuquerque and utilize best practices. As part of the 20th anniversary, Beth and the Board set an aggressive goal of fully funding 20 NDI-NM classes around the state, and recruiting 20 new members to our Silver Sneakers Legacy Society to ensure a bright future for NDI New Mexico.

Beth and Steve never hesitate to welcome friends of NDI-NM into their home for cultivation events and board appreciation dinners. Their passion for NDI New Mexico is clear – “Students’ enthusiasm for the program and for the instructors tells the story best; children have the opportunity to shine in NDI-NM, which is worth every bit of time and resources Steve and I invest.” Our thanks to Beth and Steve for their leadership, which helps ensure excellence and success for the next 20 years!
